THURSDAY EVENING, JULY 6.

Laws for the Protection of Game. The following act of Assembly for the protection of game, passed at the last session of the Legislature, and approved March 29, 1877, went into effect last Sunday : 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly, That it shall not be lawful for any person to kill or capture, or offer for sale, or buy, any partridges or quails between the first day of February and the first day of November of each year, within this State; nor shall it be lawful to capture partridges at any time by means of nets or traps of any kind until after the expiration of two years from the passage of 2. It shall not be lawful for any person to kill or capture pheasants or ruffed grouse between the first day of February and the first day of August of each year; nor woodcock be-tween the first day of February and the first day of July of each year; nor robins between the first day of April and the first day of No vember of each year; nor shall it be lawful at any time to kill or capture any brown thrush, cat bird, cardinal or red bird, house wren. oriole, wood robin, blue bird, house martin or starling, or to destroy their nests.

3. It shall not be lawful to kill or capture any wild water fewl in this State between the first day of April and the first day of September of each year, except the wild duck commonly known and called the summer duck, and except the wild fowl commonly called the sora, or during the night; that is between dark and daybreak; nor shall it be lawful to kill wild water fowl except with a gun that can be raised at arm's length and fired from the shoulder without a rest. Wild goese may be killed either during the day or night; provided, that in no case shall floating reflectors or lamps be used in shooting wild geese in the night time.

4. It shall not be lawful to kill or capture wild turkeys between the first day of February and the fifteenth day of October of each year, nor at any time by traps of any kind.

5. It shall not be lawful for six years from the passage of this act, to capture mocking birds, or to buy or sell the same, and both buy er and seller shall be subject to the penalty imposed by this act, and, in addition, each shall be fined one dellar for every bird sold and bought; but this section shall not apply to any person catching, or having, or having caught, the same on his own premises, unless for sale.

6. It shall not be lawful for any person to shoot, or in any manner whatsoever kill or destrey, the bird known as the marsh hen, nor to take its eggs later in the season in any year than the twentieth day of June. Nor shall it be lawful for any person within the limits of said county to shoot, or in any manner kill or destroy, the bird known as the willet, nor take its eggs later in the season than the twentieth of July in any year. Nor shall it be lawful for any person within the limits of said county to shoot, or in any manner kill or destroy, the bird known as the gull or striker, in any year before the first day of September, nor take their eggs later in the season than the twentieth of July. Any person offending against the provisions of this section shall forfeit and pay for each of fence not less than five nor more than ten dollars, recoverable before a justice of the peace. 7. It shall not be lawful to kill or capture day of December and the filteenth day of Au gust of the next succeeding year. 8. Any person offending against the provis ions of this act shall be guilty of a misdem eaner, and on conviction thereof in any court, or before a justice of the peace, shall be fined tea dollars for each offence, and shall be imprisoned till said fine is paid, but not exceeding 30 days. The possession of any prohibited bird or deer, within the prohibited period mentioned in this act, shall be held prima facie evidence of its deer within this State, between the fifteenth violation; and subject the person in possession to its penalties. 9. This act shall be given in charge to the grand jury at every term of the court at which a regular grand jury may be empanneled. And it shall be the duty of the sheriff of the county or corporation in which the offence is committed to prosceute the offending party promptly and vigorously; and in every case of willful fail-ure to perform this duty, he shall, on complaint of any person to the county or corpo ation judge, be fined not less than ten dollars nor more than twenty dollars. 10. This act shall repeal all acts in conflict with it, and shall take effect from and after the first day of July next.
